

Sinclair's attempts to force their stations to air "Stolen Honour" is an abuse of the public trust and public airwaves. If they have to show it have them alternate with "Going Upriver: The Long war of John Kerry", as if the Fairness Doctrine was in effect.

Better yet, count it as an illegal campaign contribution and don't allow it.

Bring back media regulation.

Thank You!